

Privacy Policy

Who we are

The Stockcross and Surroundings History Association (SASHA) is a community group welcoming members and visitors. The aim of the society is to research preserve and make available archives, artefacts and information relating to the history of Stockcross and the surrounding area and to encourage active interest and participation in our local history. The address of the group is SASHA c/o The Chairman 2 Foley Cottages, Stockcross, Newbury RG20 8JT e mail info@stockcrosshisotry.org.uk website www.stockcrosshistory.org.uk

What personal data we collect

SASHA collects personal data from its members comprising name, address, email address and telephone number. Occasionally other personal data may be collected from sources such as enquiries from visitors to our website.

What we will do with the data

SASHA will use personal information provided by members during their membership to maintain the Associations membership records and to communicate details of its activities. We may on occasions also send members details of local historical events run by other local history and similar groups.

We do not share your data with other organizations

Any communication received by SASHA via its website, email or in writing will be used to contact and communicate with you about your enquiry

How we will store the data

Personal details of members are kept in a paper file and also on a secure database both maintained by The Chairman, Stockcross and Surroundings History Association 2 Foley Cottages, Stockcross RG20 8JT. Email: info@stockcrosshistory.org.uk

Membership data will be kept during the period of your membership of SASHA and for one year after your membership has lapsed, been cancelled by you or your death.

Personal details of enquirers requesting/offering local history information are kept securely (as above) and deleted from electronic files after 1 year.

How can I submit a 'Subject Access Request'?

You can submit a subject access request by writing to The Chair, SASHA, 2 Foley Cottages, Stockcross Berkshire RG20 8JT

Will this privacy policy be updated?

SASHA regularly reviews its policies, including its privacy policy, and may make changes from time to time.